The Tina-Avalon School District was notified that two students tested positive for COVID-19. District staff has contact-traced individuals who may have come in contact with the student and teacher. Those individuals have been notified and will be required to monitor for symptoms.

If your child becomes symptomatic of COVID-19, please contact your health care provider.

Symptoms of COVID-19

- Cough
- Shortness of breath or difficulty breathing
- Fever
- Nausea, vomiting or diarrhea
- Muscle pain
- Sore throat
- New loss of taste or smell

If a student/teacher is not feeling well, please stay at home. Those participating in online learning have the option of curbside meals. If you are interested in curbside meals or have questions, please call the office 660-622-4211.

Sincerely,

Jana Holcer
Superintendent
